

Sample Curriculum for Cornerstone Groups

This is a VERY small sample of the study resources available for small groups. These are here to spark your search and discussion with your group.

STUDY GUIDES

NT Wright for Everyone Bible Study Guides

This series from scholar, and former Bishop of Durham in the Church of England, provides a study for every New Testament book in 19 volumes.

InterVarsity Press

IVP has a great selection of Bible and topical study guides for groups.

Christianity Today Bible Studies

CT also has a wide variety of studies for download.

Community by Andy Stanley

A share-my-story study for new and newer Cornerstone Groups focusing on the benefits and responsibilities of Christian Community. 8 weeks with DVD.

Disciples Path

This series on the basics of the Christian Faith is a comprehensive look at being and making disciples. 4 volumes, 13 sessions each. Quirky layout, but solid, homework-driven content.

Bonhoeffer Study Guide

This 4-part study with DVD gives an overview of Dietrich Bonhoeffer's life and major contributions to Christian thought.

BOOK REFLECTION

If your group is open to homework, then consider reading a chapter of a book with a spiritual/biblical focus for group discussion and reflection. Some books have discussion questions at the end of each chapter for group discussion.

Books by C.S Lewis - classic Christian writer

Books by Tim Keller - well known pastor, preacher and thinker

Renovare Books - many solid installments here, check out the "Classics" workbooks

Books by Mindy Caliguire - with a focus on soul care

Etc.
